Previously approved COL application, 25/00314/CLP, dated 10.03.25 was a similar design. Communications with Senior Planning Officer, Karen Robertson, established that the previous design was in fact within the remit of PD Rights, despite the initial confusion suggesting a full householder application was required.

Checklist – Application for a Certificate of Lawfulness for a Proposed Use or Development

The provision of sufficient proof in a Certificate of Lawfulness is firmly with the applicant and therefore sufficient and precise information should be provided.

Please complete the following checklist to make sure you have provided all the necessary information in support of your application. Failure to submit all this information may result in your application being deemed invalid. The Planning Authority will not start processing your application until it is valid.

A copy of a plan, showing the boundary of the site. The plan should identify the land to which the application relates and should be drawn to an identified scale. Where such an application specifies two or more uses, operations or other matters, the plan which accompanies the application is to indicate to which part of the land each such use, operation or other matter relates. * ☒ Yes ☐ No

All the evidence provided in support of your application, as detailed in your answers. * ☒ Yes ☐ No

A statement setting out the applicant's interest in the land, the name and address of any other person known to the applicant to have an interest in the land and whether any such other person has been notified of the application. * ☒ Yes ☐ No

You must submit a fee with your application. Your application will not be able to be validated until the appropriate fee has been received by the planning authority.
