This development was lacking in sufficient documentation (drawings) to show the full extent of the details required to make a proper assessment of the works proposed. Upon discussion, the works were suggested not to require full planning consent. This application will hopefully provide the necessary details to show that this is permitted development and lawful.

Checklist – Application for a Certificate of Lawfulness for a Proposed Use or Development

The provision of sufficient proof in a Certificate of Lawfulness is firmly with the applicant and therefore sufficient and precise information should be provided.

Please complete the following checklist to make sure you have provided all the necessary information in support of your application. Failure to submit all this information may result in your application being deemed invalid. The Planning Authority will not start processing your application until it is valid.

A copy of a plan, showing the boundary of the site. The plan should identify the land to which the application relates and should be drawn to an identified scale. Where such an application specifies two or more uses, operations or other matters, the plan which accompanies the application is to indicate to which part of the land each such use, operation or other matter relates. * ☒ Yes ☐ No

All the evidence provided in support of your application, as detailed in your answers. * ☒ Yes ☐ No

A statement setting out the applicant's interest in the land, the name and address of any other person known to the applicant to have an interest in the land and whether any such other person has been notified of the application. * ☒ Yes ☐ No

You must submit a fee with your application. Your application will not be able to be validated until the appropriate fee has need received by the planning authority.
