Type of Application

This application is to ascertain which one of the following would be lawful: *

- An existing use of buildings or land.
- An existing operation of development.
- Any other matter constituting a failure to comply with any condition or limitation subject to which planning permission has been granted.

Description of Existing Use of Buildings or Other Land and/or Existing Operations

Description of Existing Use, Buildings or Operations

Describe the existing uses, building works or operations for which you want a certificate of lawfulness: * (Max 500 characters)

A single story extension was added to our property and was built to align with permitted development standards. The extension was a single room to the rear of the property. Drawings have been attached to show the dimensions and relative position to the property. Building standards issued a completion certificate after the works were completed. Ref no 23/00096/WARR.

Existing Use Class

If a certificate of lawfulness is sought for either an existing use or an existing use in breach of a condition, please state the Use Class as described in the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) (Scotland) Order 1997 the use relates to: *

Is there more than one use of activity/operation? *

Yes No

Grounds for Application for Certificate of Lawfulness

Please state the grounds under which the certificate is sought: *
(Note: at least one option must be selected)

- The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application and has operated continuously.
- The use, building works, or operations in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application.
- The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years.
- The operations (for instances, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than 4 years before the date of the application.
- The use as a single dwelling house began more than 4 years before the date of this application.
- Other – specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

Are there any existing planning permission, Certificates of Lawfulness, enforcement notices or breach of condition notices affecting the application site? Yes No

Please State date and reference numbers and details of any condition being breached.

Reference Number: *

Date of condition: *

Details of condition: * (Max 500 characters)

This planning permission was issued for the dormer roof extension which was constructed under the same building warrant as the extension being referred to in this application for a letter of lawfulness. 23/00096/WARR.

Information in Support of a Certificate of Lawfulness

When did the use or activity begin, and/or when were the building works or operations substantially Completed? *

What information or documentation are you providing with your application to support this date? *

- A plan
- Evidence to substantiate your grounds of application
- Other supporting information

In the case of an existing use or activity, including an existing use or activity in breach of conditions, has there Yes No
Been any interruption or material change to the continuous use? *

Does the application for a Certificate relate to a residential use where the number of residential units has Yes No
Changed?

Please explain why you consider a Certificate of Lawfulness should be granted: * (Max 500 characters)

Based on the guidance on the Scot Gov website regarding Permitted Development, I believe the single story extension we have built complies. The extension is to the rear of the property. Extends 4m, and the eaves are 2.84m tall. It is smaller than the existing house footprint and within half of the rear curtilage area. Our property is not in a conservation area. Supporting documents attached to show dimensions and proportion to the site. <https://www.mygov.scot/add-extension-house>

Pre-Application Discussion
